Concealed Weapon Permit Class

Robert Hall, NRA and USCCA Instructor
(406) 763-6078
mcbobhall@gmail.com

This class meets the Gallatin County training requirement to apply for a Montana CWP. Upon successful completion, you will receive a document certifying your basic knowledge of handgun safety, handgun shooting, and Montana's self-defense and carry laws.

The class consists of online instruction, followed in-person training and live-fire exercises at the Logan Range. There is a $60 NRA fee for this class but handguns and ammunition are provided by the range to students who have not yet obtained a suitable firearm.

If you are interested, we will put you on the list for the next available spot in a class. Please contact me directly for more information. Thanks.

Cowboy Action

Dick DeBernardis (406) 763-426
Eric Gilberston (406) 223-4527

Cowboy Action continues with events on the second Saturday of each month April through September. See the club calendar for specific dates. Sign up for the shoot starts at 9:00 am with action starting at 9:30 am. The shoot fee is $10 and juniors shoot free. Cowboy Action is a family shooting sport enjoy worldwide. The sport is a historic based event center around the 1880 period of the American West. Using guns from the period and shooting on steel makes this a fun event. Visit our page on the MWA web site or go to the Single Action Shooting Society site, sassnet.com , on the internet for more detailed information..

Better yet just come out and watch one of our fun shoots. Spectators are always welcome and usually get to do some shooting too.
