January, 2018

Special Notices to all Members

Starting January 1, 2018 members will only be able to access the Range through the electronic gate with their Electron Gate Card. The combination green gate will no longer provide access for members. You will need a Gate Card for access to the Range Facility. See below for dates and times to pick up Electron Gate cards.

Also, January 1, 2018, Memberships will no longer be available for purchase anywhere in local stores at locations like Murdoch's, Sportsman Warehouse, etc. From this date forward, the Range Facility will be the only location to purchase a membership. The specific dates for members or potential members wanting to buy memberships, view video and/or pickup Electronic gate cards are listed below and will be only on Sunday afternoons.

Next year, active members as in the past are able to renew their membership through the mail. Additionally, the MWA is currently working on Credit Card and Debit card processing service for range membership renewals and also on the internet. We will keep the membership updated on this process as we proceed.

Amendments to the Manhattan Wildlife Association By Laws

The By Laws of the association have been reviewed by the board and our attorney. Changes need to be made to bring the By Laws in line with state requirements and to align current procedures not in the current By Laws. Enclosed in this newsletter are the amendments to the current By Laws. Each amendment has an explanation for the change. These amendments will be presented for approval at the annual meeting in January.

Elections - Nominations

The nomination committee has not received any names for submission for any of three positions up for election this year. The incumbent individuals have been contacted and are willing to accept appointment to another term of office. The two board members are Gary Reed and Dick DeBernardis and the land board member is John Steele. All nomination were required to be submitted to the nomination committee prior to this date and the nomination process has closed.
